

PRESENTS LOTUS TALKS “SOCIALLY ENGAGED BUDDHISM FOR THE 21ST CENTURY”

A PANEL DISCUSSION ON HOW THE BUDDHA DHAMMA COULD BE APPLIED TO IMPROVE MODERN SOCIETY

Speakers:

- Dr Kalinga Seneviratne, Founder Lotus Communication Network on “Mindful Communication for Sustainable Development – A Buddhist Approach to Development Communication”
- Mr Ng Xin Zhao, Project Executive (Renewables & Environment), Kong Meng San Phor Kark Monastery on “Become Vegetarian to Save the Earth - A Buddhist Approach to Reducing Green House Gas Emissions”
- Mr Jayasri Priyalal, Director, Finance Section, UNI Global Asia-Pacific on “Showing Compassion to Precarious Workers – Buddhist Principles Towards Decent Jobs and Inclusive Growth”

“Lotus Talks”

is a project where Lotus Communication Network (LCN) hopes to organize regular talks and seminars with like-minded Buddhist organisations and institutions across Asia to encourage discussion of the Buddha’s teachings from a practical action oriented perspective to promote better understanding of the Dhamma and its application to modern society. Edited versions of the talks will be made available via LCN website (www.lotuscomm.org) as an educational resource, which could be watched via You Tube.

Free Entry by Registration

Please email
lotuscommnet@gmail.com
for registration.
Ph: 98809640

15TH MAY 2016
(SUN)

2PM - 5PM

SINGAPORE BUDDHIST LIBRARY
AUDITORIUM, 2 LORONG 24A,
GEYLANG ROAD